Let's Build a Snowman

It had been snowing all weekend. Dan put on his warm clothes and a pair of boots and went outside to build a snowman. First he packed some snow into a ball in his hands. Next he rolled it along the ground to make it bigger. He made three sizes of snowballs for the snowman. He used sticks for the arms and two rocks for the eyes. Then he put a hat and scarf on his snowman. Everyone honked as they drove by. Dan's snowman looked like it was waving at the cars.
